- The son of Jonathan, King Saul's son.
- Lame in his feet due to an accident as a young child and due to no fault of his own.
- Living in Lo-debar (translates to 'no pasture'), a seemingly barren place.
- Sought out by King David, a man after God's own heart.
- Given a place of prominence at the king's table.

Compare the passages in 2 Samuel 4:4 and 2 Samuel 9 with Psalm 113, and in particular verses 7-9. God extends His lovingkindness, grace and mercy to all even today; will you accept it?
